- Live concert on the Volkswagen stage at the Arena Panzerplatte on rally Saturday

Munich/Trier, 12 August 2015 – This rally rocks! We're talking about the ADAC Rallye Deutschland and one of the best bands in Germany: Revolverheld. In late August, the four full-blooded musicians from Hamburg will come to the German FIA WRC round to play an exclusive live concert for the fans there.

Revolverheld's one-time performance is scheduled for Saturday, 22 August 2015, between the Special Stages (SS) of the Arena Panzerplatte on the Baumholder military range. The approx. one-hour gig on the central Volkswagen stage will begin at 14:00 hours. Singer Johannes Strate and his bandmates will perform songs from their current album "Immer in Bewegung", including such hits as "Das kann uns keiner nehmen", "Ich lass für Dich das Licht an" and "Lass uns gehen".

The Revolverheld concert on the Baumholder military range is free for all spectators of the ADAC Rallye Deutschland 2015 with a valid event ticket. In addition to the Rally Pass at €69.00 (€64.00 for ADAC members), which is valid for all four days of the event, fans can also purchase single tickets at €20.00 for the Special Stages at the Arena Panzerplatte in the local spectator areas.

Further Panzerplatte highlights:

The Special Stages at the military range at Baumholder have always been a must for action lovers. This year, the spectacular chase over the Panzerplatte will notch it up a gear. The action starts Saturday morning (at 10:32 hours) with the Sprint which the teams will complete twice in a row for the first time ever. The fans will be able to watch the WRC rally cars for most of the 2.87 km section. At 11:05 hours, the first cars will start on the long Panzerplatte Stage. The layout of this 45.61 km long course also allows spectators to see the cars several times. In the afternoon (from 17:06 hours), the teams will compete in another Sprint, followed by one more Panzerplatte Long SS. There is always something happening next to the track on the Panzerplatte as well: Volkswagen and ADAC will set up a full-fledged TV studio – with celebrity guests, live cameras and a live feed onto a giant video screen. In addition, there will be numerous food/drinks and promotion stands, including the official ADAC Rallye Deutschland fan shop.
