- ADAC Rallye Deutschland will take place from 19 to 21 August 2016.

Munich/Trier, 10 November 2015 – The Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA) confirmed the date for the 2016 ADAC Rallye Deutschland. Next year, the world's best rally drivers will compete for world championship points between the Eifel, Moselle and Hunsrück from 19 to 21 August. The German WRC event will be the ninth out of 14 FIA World Rally Championship races to be run in the Trier area in 2016.

The ADAC Rallye Deutschland has been part of the World Rally Championship since 2002. In the year ahead, it will be a WRC event for the fourteenth time.

ADAC Rallye Deutschland information:

The ADAC Rallye Deutschland has a unique world-wide reputation. Its mix of hairpin stages in the Mosel vineyards, tough tracks on the Baumholder tank range and fast asphalt roads presents extreme challenges for both teams and drivers. This mix requires excellent driving skills and versatility. Diversity, high-class action and closeness to the fans are the ingredients that make the ADAC Rallye Deutschland such an attractive package for spectators as well. Year after year, this major event draws enthusiastic crowds from all over Europe, giving it a special, international atmosphere.
