Grab a bargain, quickly – discounted tickets for MotoGP at the Sachsenring available until end of January

- Reduced rates for advance tickets end on 31st January
- The new “Friday for all” ticket is available for € 29
- Only German round of MotoGP takes place from 16th to 18th June

Hohenstein-Ernstthal. Act now and save money: Fans of the LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany (16th to 18th June) only have until 31st January to get their tickets at reduced prices. That is the deadline for reduced-price advance tickets for the only MotoGP round in Germany, giving ticket buyers one last chance to save up to 10%. The mega event at the Sachsenring is one of the biggest sporting events in Germany and a huge draw for all motorcycle fans. Ticket prices start at just € 29, and the new MotoGP sprint race on Saturday is set to make the programme even more spectacular.

Advance ticket prices for the 25th staging of the Grand Prix at the Sachsenring, in Hohenstein-Ernstthal near Chemnitz, are even more extensive this year. A new addition is the “Friday for all” ticket for € 29, which gives the owner access to the standing area and all available grandstand seats on the Friday. Also available for the first time is the Flex Ticket, with free seat selection on the Friday, a seat in the Dekra stand T13 on the Saturday for qualifying and the sprint race, and a seat in the Honda stand T7 on the Sunday. Regular ticket prices apply from 1st February.

Tickets for the LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany are available from the online ticket shop at adac.de/motogp, by phone via the hotline on +49 3723/8099111, or by E-mail to info@sachsenring-event.de.
