Fan service for the LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany 2023

- Lost property office, info hotline and service points make for a comprehensive service
- Remaining tickets available online and on the gate

Munich. It is just two weeks until showtime at the Sachsenring, as one of the German sporting highlights of 2023 comes to town: the LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany (16th to 18th June). The iconic circuit near Chemnitz hosts the Grand Prix of Germany for the 25th time in a row. Here is a brief summary of the key fan information for this milestone event:

Directions and parking

MotoGP fans travelling to the Sachsenring from the south, east or north can reach the free car park P12 via the A72 motorway. There is a direct route to the car park via the Stollberg-Nord exit and the B180. Spectators coming from the west can use the Wüstenbrand exit on the A4 motorway. Route maps are available online at adac.de/motogp.

From Friday to Sunday, free shuttle buses will be running between car park P12 and the Sachsenring at regular intervals from 05:00. The special P11 car park is reached best from the A72, Stollberg-Nord exit, or via the Hohenstein-Ernstthal exit on the A4.

Camping

Camping is possible at Ankerberg (ankerberg-festival.de).

Event programme

From the new Dekra Big Wheel and the Charity Run on Wednesday, to the Red Bull racing circus, the Ankerberg Festival and events in the Kart Hall, the programme of events at the Sachsenring is as diverse and entertaining as always. You can find an overview of the whole event programme at adac.de/motogp, under the header "Off-Track Programme". Admission to the events is free for ticket holders.

Lost property office

The lost property office is located at Wüstenbrander Straße 8, can be reached by phone on 03723/4411030, and is staffed at all times.

Media Information
