Hohenstein-Ernstthal. No sooner is one Grand Prix over, than preparations begin for the next one: advance ticket sales for the 2024 LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany begin at 16:00 this Sunday, 18th June. Tickets for next summer's MotoGP event will be available from the Sachsenring, from the ticket offices on Goldbachstraße, as well as online at adac.de/motogp. The ticket prices remain unchanged in the various attractive categories. Admission is still free for under 14s when accompanied by an adult.

"The Sachsenring lives from its fans, and we are pleased to be able to keep the prices the same. That is a big thank you to our loyal fans, who for years have been ensuring that the Motorcycle Grand Prix is one of the biggest and most important sporting events in Germany," says ADAC Sport President Dr. Gerd Ennser.

Ticket prices start at 29 euros: the good-value "Friday for All" ticket gives visitors on the Friday access to all the standing areas and any available seats in the grandstands. Anyone who is fast enough can get hold of the "Flex Ticket", which offers plenty of flexibility: with it, fans have a free choice of seat on the Friday, a seat in stand T13 on the Sachsenkurve on the Saturday, and a seat in stand T7 by the exit to the Kart Hall on the Sunday. Only a limited number of these tickets, which cost 250 euros, are available.

There is good news for families too: admission to the standing areas is free for under 14s when accompanied by a paying adult. The children's grandstand ticket for fans under 14 years of age offers a 50 percent discount for stands T2, T4, T7 and T13 when purchased in advance. This offer applies to the Platinum (three-day ticket) and Gold (Saturday/Sunday) categories. There are also attractive options for campers again: camping areas will be set up at the Sachsenring Camping Village behind stand T13 and at the camper site at car park P10 on Goldbachstraße.

The LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany 2024 takes place next summer. The exact date will be announced later.
