Sachsenring the crowd puller: Act fast and get your MotoGP tickets own, with discounts for ADAC members and families

- Reductions for families and ADAC members
- New pit lane rooftop ticket for the German round of MotoGP
- Some stands already sold out for the Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany

Munich. From 5th to 7th July, the Sachsenring will be transformed into an exceptional motorcycle festival. Last year, 233,196 spectators set a new crowd record for the Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany, and the German round of the world championship is again proving to be extremely popular with MotoGP fans this year. In 2024, the Saturday will again feature the MotoGP sprint, which was introduced last year and ensures that visitors to the Sachsenring are treated to MotoGP race action on the Saturday as well as the Sunday. Demand for tickets for the 85th Grand Prix on German soil remains high, with some stands already sold out for the Sunday. Anyone wishing to be there when MotoGP comes to town needs to act fast. Tickets start at € 29 and are available in the online shop at adac.de/motogp. ADAC members receive a ten percent discount on selected tickets. Families also benefit from attractive reductions. Admission to standing areas is free for under 14s when accompanied by an adult.

There are particularly good deals for ADAC members when purchasing tickets in advance: they receive ten percent off Platinum (three-day ticket) and Gold (Saturday/Sunday) tickets for grandstands T2, T4, T7 and T13. Furthermore, visitors to the Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany enjoy family-friendly prices. Children under 14 receive free admission to all standing areas when accompanied by an adult, and 50 percent off the child's grandstand ticket. The reduction applies to grandstands T2, T4, T7 and T13, as well as for Platinum and Gold ticket categories. And there's more: the "Friday-for-all" ticket gives MotoGP fans access to standing areas and all available grandstand seats for just € 29 on the first practice day.

The range of tickets available for the only German round of the world championship has a new addition this year: the pit lane rooftop ticket. This is available as an additional option for € 150 and offers Platinum ticket holders the opportunity to follow the action in the pit lane at first hand all weekend. One thing applies to all tickets for the Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany: it is worth acting fast. Many stands are already sold out for the Sunday.

An extra experience awaits fans of Ducati, Honda and KTM at the Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany. A limited number of special edition tickets, including a fan package, are available for the Ducati (T3) and Honda (T7) fan stands. KTM also has a fan package for everyone who visits its grandstand (T9). And special packages are also available for spectators in the Dekra stands, T3/1 and T13, as well as for all guests staying at the Sachsenring Camping Village. Ticket holders can collect the fan packages from the respective grandstands.
