Fan information for the 2026 Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany

- Lost property offices, info hotline and race pharmacy help in cases of emergency
- Limited number of tickets still available
- Entertaining and diverse programme away from the track

Munich. This week, the wait is over: Germany's motorsport fans will make the pilgrimage to the Sachsenring. More than 250,000 spectators make the Liqui Moly Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany one of the biggest motorsport events in the country - with thrilling motorcycle action and motor racing history up close and personal. We have clearly and precisely put together all the key information for fans ahead of the only German round of the MotoGP World Championship:

Directions and parking

Access routes are provided from all directions. Spectators coming from the west can use the Wüstenbrand exit on the A4 motorway towards Chemnitz. From there, it is easy to get to the free car park P12. Those travelling from the south, north and northeast are recommended to take the Stollberg-Nord exit on the A72 motorway. From there, the B180 leads directly to the easily accessible car park P12.

It is not permitted to park caravans and mobile homes here. Instead, campers should take the Hohenstein-Ernstthal exit on the A4. From here, take the B180 to the camping village behind the Dekra grandstand T13. Route information can be found at adac.de/motogp, under the heading "Directions".

Camping

Camping is possible at Ankerberg (ankerberg-festival.de). The camping village behind grandstand T13 is already sold out.

Event programme

Starting with the BplusL Charity Run on Wednesday, the programme away from the racetrack also leaves nothing to be desired. The Dekra Big Wheel will again provide unique views of the Sachsenring. Motorsport fans will also be in their element at the Pitlane Walk on Thursday, for which a limited number of tickets are still available, the MotoGP Hero Walk, and in the Red Bull Racing Circus. Events in the kart hall round off the programme. For an overview of the whole event programme, head to adac.de/motogp, "Support programme". Admission to the events is free for ticket holders.

Family Day

New this year is the MotoGP Family Day: On the Thursday before the race weekend (9th July, from 11:00 in the area between the main entrance and the kart hall, it is all about the youngest fans. Admission is free, and visitors can look forward to MotoGP simulators, a bouncy castle, face painting, a big wheel, slot car racing, balloon modelling, craft stations, pocket bikes, and a wheel of fortune with great prizes to be won. The foundation "Stark für Kinder Zwickau" will also be there. With this event, the Sachsenring is showing that elite motorsport and family experience go hand in hand.

Motorcycle parking

Exclusively for the Grand Prix weekend, motorcycle parking places will be available in the specially-erected car park P3 at Autohaus Schmidt (Am Sachsenring 1, 09337 Bernsdorf) – right on the B180 and with access to the Sachsenring on the opposite side of the road. Parking tickets are only available on site.

Bicycle parking facilities

There are two free bicycle parking facilities at the Sachsenring: bicycles can be parked at car park P11 or at the ticket office on Goldbachstraße.

Lost property offices

This year, there will be two lost property offices. One is located at the main entrance on Goldbachstraße, near the kart hall. The other is behind grandstand T1 on the opposite side of Wüstenbrander Straße. They can be reached by phone on 03723/4411030, and are staffed at all times.

Health

As well as more than 50 medics and emergency doctors, the race pharmacy is also on hand to look after spectators. Whether a headache, or sunburn – all fans are helped here. The race pharmacy is located on Gewerbegebietsstraße, behind grandstand T8. Spectators should also come prepared for the forecast weather conditions (cap, sunscreen, sunglasses, etc.). It is also permitted to bring up to 1.5 litres of non-alcoholic drinks per person in PET bottles.

Info hotline

If fans have any questions regarding the Motorcycle Grand Prix, the info hotline is available every day between 08:00 and 18:00 on 03723/8099111.

MotoGP App

The MotoGP Circuit App has been specially developed for fans at the venue of any Grand Prix and provides all the key information on that particular Grand Prix. The app contains a free Live Timing function, all important times, circuit info, the official programme, the biggest news stories, and much more. The MotoGP Circuit App can be downloaded free of charge in the App Store or the Google Play Store.

Sustainability and waste disposal

The Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany is all about motorsport, festival feeling and a sense of responsibility. That means: protecting the environment, acting in a socially responsible manner, and celebrating mindfully together at the Sachsenring. Spectators are encouraged to help: using the waste bins provided helps keep the whole site clean.

Support programme

Joining MotoGP for a feast of racing action at the Sachsenring will be Moto2, Moto3, the Red Bull MotoGP Rookies Cup, and the Moto4 Northern Cup. Two bright young hopes from Saxony - Robin Siegert and Anina Urlaß - lead the Moto4 Northern Cup.

Ticket service point

A service point has been set up at the main entrance on Goldbachstraße for any questions regarding tickets and for purchasing tickets for wheelchair users/people with disabilities.

Exchanging tickets for plastic tickets

Fans can exchange their paper tickets for plastic tickets, for a fee of € 5 per ticket, at the ticket offices next to the main entrance on Goldbachstraße and at car park P11. The tickets can be exchanged between 10:00 and 18:00 on Thursday, from 07:00 to 17:00 on Friday and Saturday, and from 06:00 to 14:00 on Sunday.
