LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany to thrill fans with a huge support programme in 2023

- New Dekra Big Wheel next to the Kart Hall party hotspot
- Red Bull racing circus with spectacular programme
- MotoGP rider parade on Sunday

Munich. The LIQUI MOLY Motorcycle Grand Prix of Germany at the Sachsenring promises five days of pure action as it celebrates its 25th anniversary in 2023. From Wednesday afternoon to Sunday evening, the passionate MotoGP fans will be royally entertained both on and off the racetrack. The Charity Run at 19:00 on the Wednesday traditionally opens the MotoGP race weekend at the circuit in Hohenstein-Ernstthal. The strictly limited tickets for the popular opening event are available for 25 euros from the online shop at adac.de/motogp. Attractive prizes are up for grabs, including the latest Tissot MotoGP Edition 2023. All proceeds go to the charity Kinderarche Sachsen.

On Thursday afternoon, the pit lane opens its gates for the popular pit walk. For 20 euros, MotoGP fans have two hours to savour getting close to their heroes and watching the teams at work. From Thursday, the Kart Hall will be transformed into the party hotspot for the weekend. The party gets started with DJ Engel B at 19:00. The new Dekra Big Wheel, which is located right next to the Sachsenring and runs into the night on all days of the event, provides a spectacular view.

From 19:00 on the Friday evening, ABBA and Bee Gees tribute bands will warm up MotoGP fans, while a Tina Turner tribute show will provide the entertainment on the Saturday evening. And it wouldn't be the same without the big highlight of the fringe programme: the traditional rider presentation in the Kart Hall, presented by Metallbau Maltitz. The presentation begins before the Grand Prix at 19:00 on the Saturday evening.

New to the programme is the MotoGP Riders Parade at 10:00 on the Sunday. The two-wheel heroes will do a presentation lap in front of the fans – a great opportunity to take some photos.

Entertainment aplenty, courtesy of the Red Bull racing circus

An entertaining programme awaits motorcycle fans in the paddock, the highlight of which is the Red Bull racing circus. It opens from 09:00 to 19:00 on Friday and Saturday, and 09:00 to 15:00 on the Sunday, and offers MotoGP visitors an extensive programme, including a hall of fame of successful Red Bull motorcycles and racing cars. Stunt shows and autograph sessions with the MotoGP stars round off the spectacular programme in the Red Bull racing circus.

Another must-see attraction is the vintage motorcycle exhibition next to the yellow ADAC Tower. It opens its doors at 09:00 every day from the Friday. The Ankerberg Festival will again run parallel to the Motorcycle Grand Prix. All weekend, the fans will party the night away with various live bands and DJs.
