Eibach new partner of ADAC GT Masters and ADAC TCR Germany

- Eibach are specialist manufacturers of high-performance springs and suspension components
- The company also already works closely with the ADAC Formula 4 and ADAC TCR Germany

Munich: Eibach are extending their involvement with ADAC Motorsport. The German company that specialises in the production of springs and suspension components will support the ADAC GT Masters and ADAC TCR Germany as of this season. Eibach already have a long and successful motor racing tradition. Based in Frintrop, Germany, the company has been successfully involved with the Formula 1 world championship, the world rally championship, the sports car sector and with the DTM. Eibach have been series partners of the ADAC Formula 4 and ADAC Rallye Deutschland since 2015. While all ADAC Formula 4 drivers line up on Eibach springs, many teams from ADAC GT Masters and ADAC TCR Germany also fit products manufactured by the well-established company. The Eibach logo will now feature on drivers' overalls and on the backdrop used for interviews in the Super Sports Car League. The company logo will also be displayed on the rear wall of the winners' podium in the ADAC TCR Germany.

Eibach Motorsport Manager Stephan Stöcker: "It makes us very proud to be able to assist another important race series like the ADAC GT Masters. Motor racing is the yardstick by which we measure our goals, because our company is in the business of developing products that must meet even the most demanding requirements of the racetrack. The high-performance cars in the GT class are a prime example."

ADAC Head of Motorsport and Classic Thomas Voss: "We're very pleased that Eibach are now extending their commitment from the ADAC Formula 4 to the ADAC GT Masters and ADAC TCR Germany. That Eibach are now lending their support to all three series is a ringing endorsement of our ADAC GT Masters events platform."

The new ADAC GT Masters season kicks off in the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben on the weekend of 28th to 30th April. SPORT1 will again broadcast all races live and in full during 2017.

About Eibach

Eibach are one of the world's leading manufacturers of high-performance springs and suspension components. The company also produces specially engineered springs for demanding applications and has a huge range, covering almost all areas of industrial and automotive engineering. Eibach combine the highest quality with the greatest possible flexibility and economy both for small and large batch production. The business has its own production plants in Europe (Frintrop, Deutschland), North America (Corona, CA, USA) and Asia (Taicang, China) and is represented in Australia, England and South Africa through its own engineering and sales companies. Eibach looks the needs after customers in a further 80 countries, giving support through regional partners.
