Start of accreditation process for the 2019 ADAC GT Masters

- Accreditation for the ADAC GT Masters, ADAC Formula 4, ADAC TCR Germany and ADAC GT4 Germany gets underway

Munich: Media representatives can now apply for permanent accreditation and accreditation on a meeting-by-meeting basis for the new ADAC GT Masters season, starting in April, as well as for the ADAC Formula 4, the ADAC TCR Germany and the new ADAC GT4 Germany.

This is only possible online at adac-motorsport.de/akkreditierung. Media representatives from print, online and radio as well as photographers are asked to submit requests for accreditation online. Detailed guidelines about accreditation can also be found on our website there. You must submit all documents required to become accredited for the full season by 1st April at the latest.

An additional accreditation pass is needed for the Media Day concerning the ADAC GT Masters, ADAC Formula 4, ADAC TCR Germany and ADAC GT4 Germany. The Media Day and press conference for the 2019 season will take place on 8th April during official ADAC GT Masters preseason testing at the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben. Further information about the Media Day is to follow.

Requests for accreditation for all seven meetings on a meeting-by-meeting basis can also now be made. For deadlines, please see below.

Press accreditation does not entitle the holder to record moving pictures. TV and film crews require a separate TV filming permit. Please direct enquiries about national and international TV filming permits as well as broadcasts you plan to make on online portals to:
