ADAC GT Masters in Oschersleben behind closed doors

- Tickets already bought can be exchanged or returned
- Extensive coverage on new TV partner NITRO

Munich. As a result of the current pandemic situation, the opening round of the ADAC GT Masters in Oschersleben (14th to 16th May) will take place behind closed doors. Fans who have already purchased tickets can exchange them for another event or return them. Thanks to the extensive coverage on new TV partner NITRO, fans watching the German GT Championship from home will still feel in the thick of the action. The “countdown” to each 60-minute race starts at 16:00 on both Saturday and Sunday. After the presentation ceremony at 17:45, the highlight show features detailed analysis of the race. More analyses and background stories on the digital channels of the ADAC GT Masters and media group RTL round off the extensive coverage.

In the next few days, fans who had already purchased tickets for the event in Oschersleben online will receive an E-mail with instructions on how to return or exchange the ticket for another event. Tickets purchased from ADAC branches or Eventim booking offices can be returned there. If the ticket sales points are closed, ticket buyers can request the exchange or return of their tickets via motorsport@adac.de.
