Media Service for the ADAC GT Masters at the Hockenheimring

- Video press conferences on Friday and after the races
- Media Guides available online
- Info service via Signal messenger app

Munich. The German GT Championship heads to Hockenheim this weekend (22nd to 24th October) for another highlight as the season approaches its end. Hockenheim always produces spectacular racing and, in the middle of a thrilling title race in the ADAC GT Masters, the addition of newcomer Aston Martin makes the field in the series even more diverse. Furthermore, the races in the Motordrome near Heidelberg will offer fascinating insights into the coming season. You will hear all the background stories before and after the races in our video press conferences, in which you too can pose questions. Below, we have put together some information to help you report on the German GT Championship in Hockenheim.
