ADAC GT Masters kicks off the 2023 season at the “Festival of Dreams”

- Festival to mark the 75th birthday of Porsche sports cars in Hockenheim
- Anniversary event with the ADAC GT Masters and Porsche one-make cups

Munich. The ADAC GT Masters kicks off the 2023 season with an extraordinary event in Hockenheim from 9th to 11th June. The two races will be held at the “Festival of Dreams”, a Porsche event, at which the sports car manufacturer will celebrate its 75th anniversary. As well as the ADAC GT Masters, Hockenheim will also host two races in the both the Porsche Carrera Cup Deutschland and the Porsche Carrera Cup Benelux.

The focus of the “Festival of Dreams” is on 75 years of Porsche sports cars. Not only will the anniversary be celebrated on the track and in the paddock, but the Porsche Experience Center will also be incorporated in the event. Visitors can look forward to an entertaining programme for the whole family.

Back in 2019, the Hockenheimring Baden-Württemberg was transformed into a Mecca for Porsche lovers: roughly 70,000 visitors attended the “Sportscar Together Day”, 9,000 of whom travelled in their own Porsche. The Porsche Carrera Cup Deutschland will stage races three and four of its season at the “Festival of Dreams”. The 34th season gets underway as part of the FIA World Endurance Championship (WEC) event at Circuit de Spa-Francorchamps in Belgium. The remaining twelve races share the bill with the DTM.

The 2023 ADAC GT Masters season opens in Hockenheim and features a total of six events, including a long-awaited return to one of the highlights of German motorsport at the Norisring (7th to 9th July) and the ADAC Truck Grand Prix at the Nürburgring (14th to 16th July).
