“Festival of Dreams”: Free admission to the opening round of this season’s ADAC GT Masters

- Event in Hockenheim marks the 75th birthday of Porsche sports cars
- Talks with personalities including Toni Garrn and Walter Röhrl
- Live concert from Alvaro Soler on the Saturday evening

Munich. Great news for fans: free tickets for the opening round of the ADAC GT Masters at the “Festival of Dreams”, from 9th to 11th June at the Hockenheimring Baden-Württemberg, are available now. Visitors to the anniversary event to mark 75 years of Porsche sports cars can enjoy free admission and a big programme. The free tickets and information on the event are available at festival-of-dreams.de.

Porsche enthusiasts, in particular, will have already made a note of the second weekend in July in their calendar. The “Festival of Dreams” has a diverse programme in store for all visitors. In Dreamers Plaza in the paddock, Steven Gätjen will present entertaining talks with famous personalities including Toni Garrn, Paul Ripke and Walter Röhrl. Another highlight will be an exclusive concert from Alvaro Soler on the Saturday evening. A kids area makes the “Festival of Dreams” an unforgettable event for the little ones too. Plus, there will be a hint of Le Mans in the paddock: the internationally famous 24-hour race at the Circuit des 24 Heures will be shown live on the roof terrace of the Porsche Experience Center.

The free tickets grant admission to the festival site, the Porsche Experience Center, and the public grandstands. As well as the ADAC GT Masters, the spectacular racing also includes the Porsche Carrera Cup Deutschland and the Porsche Carrera Cup Benelux. The Porsche Sprint Challenge Classic Deutschland is set to make its debut in Hockenheim, featuring vintage air-cooled Cup cars from the 964 and 993 model ranges.
