Media accreditation now open for 2015 ADAC GT Masters

- Full accreditations for the ADAC GT Masters and ADAC Formula 4 now available
- Online portal for press accreditation activated
- Apply for permanent accreditation any time up to 10th April

Munich: Media representatives can request permanent accreditation for the 2015 ADAC GT Masters season with immediate effect. The accreditation process is conducted exclusively online via the press area of the ADAC website (www.adac.de/gt-masters). Representatives of the print, online and radio media as well as photographers can request online accreditation for the forthcoming season of the Super Sports Car League and the new ADAC Formula 4 as well as the other support races.

The necessary documents for full-season accreditation must be submitted no later than 10th April. One-off accreditations for the ADAC GT Masters curtain raiser at the etropolis Motorsport Arena Oschersleben (weekend of 24th to 26th April) will be made available as of 18th March. The relevant dates for individual accreditations for all further events are listed below. Detailed accreditation guidelines can be found in the media section at www.adac.de/gt-masters.

Media accreditation does not entitle the holder to record moving images. TV and video crews must have a TV filming permit. Enquiries about national and international TV filming permits as well as planned online broadcasts should be directed to _wige MARKETING gmbh, David Clemens, Am Coloneum 2, D-50829 Cologne; Tel: +49 221 78877 536; Fax: +49 221 78877649; E-mail: David.Clemens@wige.de

The 2015 ADAC GT Masters season will be contested in Germany, Austria, Belgium and the Netherlands over eight separate weekends, making a total of 16 races. As in previous years, the 2015 ADAC GT Masters will be shown live on TV. New exclusive TV partner SPORT1 will be broadcasting all 16 races of the ADAC GT Masters live and in full to viewers in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Saturday and Sunday coverage on race weekends commences at 1pm.
