DEKRA and ADAC GT Masters develop partnership further

- The DEKRA vehicle inspection company will also act as partner to new ADAC Formula 4
- DEKRA has been associated with the ADAC GT Masters since 2008
- Successful collaboration prolonged for another two years

Munich. DEKRA and the ADAC GT Masters are to extend their successful partnership even further. DEKRA is official partner of the Super Sports Car League and will also be an official partner of the new ADAC Formula 4 for the next two years. ADAC Formula 4 will be staged for the first time in 2015. The DEKRA/ADAC GT Masters partnership has been ongoing since 2008 and is the longest running in the Super Sports Car League. DEKRA's green-white logo will feature on the race number holders in both the ADAC GT Masters and ADAC Formula 4.

“DEKRA has been a really loyal partner to the ADAC GT Masters, and we are very pleased that we can now extend this successful partnership to the new ADAC Formula 4,” said Lars Soutschka, ADAC Director Motorsport and Classic. “ADAC Formula 4 is one of the most interesting projects undertaken by ADAC Motorsport in recent years. It is great to be joined by a strong and reliable associate like DEKRA, as we begin a new era in junior motorsport in Germany.”

DEKRA is one of the world's leading expert organisations, active in more than 50 countries on all five continents. About 35,000 employees work to ensure safety, top quality and protection of the environment long-term. DEKRA SE is a wholly owned subsidiary of DEKRA eV and directs the group's operating activities. The DEKRA business areas of Automotive, Industrial and Personnel have made a name for themselves as providers of expert and innovative services in the fields of vehicle testing, report writing, claims adjustment, systems certification, product testing and certification, industrial & final inspection, materials testing and inspection, consulting, training and temporary employment. DEKRA achieved a prospective turnover of around 2.5 billion euros in 2014.

Tickets, including access to the paddock, start at 20 euros

Fans who want to experience ADAC GT Masters action live at the track can now apply for tickets for the races in Oschersleben, at the Lausitzring, Nürburgring, Sachsenring and for the finale in Hockenheim. Ticket prices start at 20 euros and include access to the paddock. ADAC members can now purchase tickets for all eight race weekends via the ADAC preferential scheme. Tickets are available online at www.adac.de/gt-masters and at www.eventim.de, from any ADAC branch office and from more than 20,000 Eventim outlets throughout Europe.

The ADAC GT Masters will line up for the 2015 season in Germany, Austria, Belgium and the Netherlands, staging eight events and 16 races. ADAC GT Masters races will again be shown live by ADAC new live-TV exclusive partner SPORT1, who will broadcast all 16 ADAC GT Masters races live and in their entirety in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Broadcasts will normally begin at 1 pm on race weekends.
