

6.12.2022

Invitation to press conference on the future of the DTM

Dear Sir/Madam/Colleague,

The DTM is opening a new chapter next year: from the 2023 season, ADAC e. V. will promote the racing series for the first time. We would like to inform you about our plans for the future of the DTM at a press conference with ADAC Sport President Dr. Gerd Ennser and ADAC Motorsport Director Thomas Voss in Munich on Thursday 8th December, starting at 12:00.

What?	Press conference on the future of the DTM
When?	Thursday 8 th December, 12:00
Where?	ADAC e. V., Clubhaus, Hansastr. 23, 80686 Munich
Who?	Dr. Gerd Ennser, ADAC Sport President Thomas Voss, ADAC Motorsport Director

ADAC Clubhaus is located at Hansastr. 23, right next to the main entrance to the ADAC. If travelling by car, you can use the ADAC's underground car park at Hansastr. 19 free of charge. The route from the underground car park to the Clubhaus is signposted. If arriving on public transport, take the S7 or U4/5 to Heimeranplatz, which is directly in front of the building.

If you are unable to make it in person to Munich on Thursday, you can follow a livestream of the press conference at <https://adac.we-bcast.com/>. You can also submit questions on this page, before and during the press conference.

Please let us know by 17:00 on Wednesday if you will be attending the press conference.

We look forward to seeing you in Munich on Thursday.

Media Contact

ADAC e.V.

Oliver Runschke, T +49 89 76 76 69 65, E-mail oliver.runschke@adac.de

Kay-Oliver Langendorff, T +49 89 76 76 69 36, E-mail kay.langendorff@adac.de

adac.de/motorsport
dtm.com