Running smoothly – Ravenol is new partner of the DTM

- Lubricant manufacturer and the DTM join forces
- Expansion of the comprehensive, long-term partnership with the ADAC
- The Ravenol ADAC GT Masters Talk is on air again this year

Munich. The DTM has entered into another promising cooperation. Ravenol is official lubricant partner of the popular racing series, as well as the Prototype Cup Germany and DTM Classic. The company from Werther in North Rhine-Westphalia is also continuing its long-term and successful cooperation with the ADAC GT Masters, ADAC GT4 Germany and the ADAC XC Cup. Great news for all motorsport fans: the popular talk show “PS on Air – The Ravenol ADAC GT Masters Talk” goes live again this year.

“GT racing is an important field of activity for us. We are pleased to work with the DTM as a flagship in the future, and to be able to present our products on this high-class platform. At the same time, we are continuing to support various ADAC Series with our high-performance lubricants. Our shared goal is to demonstrate maximum performance with a special emphasis on sustainability,” says Martin Huning, Motorsport Director at Ravenol.

“Ravenol is known globally for its excellent products and has been successfully involved in motorsport for decades. The collaboration with the DTM gives both parties new opportunities and perspectives. We are looking forward to a long and productive partnership,” says Thomas Voss, ADAC Motorsport Director.

This season, Ravenol presents the field in the DTM and all ADAC support series. Ravenol logos will be visible in the various ADAC racing series, including at the presentation ceremony and on the race cars. The company has been actively involved in motorsport since 2004, since when it has been a reliable supporter of elite and grassroots sport. Many teams put their faith in the outstanding performance offered by Ravenol products.
