Munich. While spectators are enjoying the DTM title showdown this weekend, the advance sale of tickets for the 2024 season gets underway on Sunday (22nd October). Loyal DTM fans at the finale in Hockenheim will have the exclusive opportunity from 12:00 to secure the best seats for next year at the Hockenheimring ticket office. The online sale of tickets at dtm.com then begins immediately after the final race of the season at 15:00. Ticket prices start at € 39 and admission is again free for children and youngsters when accompanied by an adult in 2024.

It is worth getting hold of DTM tickets for 2024 as soon as possible: anyone purchasing tickets on dtm.com by 13th November 2023 will enjoy a Fast Lane discount of ten percent. ADAC members also receive a ten percent saving for the coming season, meaning they benefit twice. Together with the Fast Lane discount, ADAC members save more than 36 percent compared to purchasing tickets at the gate.

From 22nd October, tickets in all categories and for seven of the eight DTM events will be available online at dtm.com. Tickets for the highlight of the season at the Norisring in Nuremberg will go on sale in November. Admission to standing areas at all circuits remains free for under 16s when accompanied by a paying adult. The DTM will again be open and accessible to the fans in the 2024 season: all tickets include free admission to the DTM paddock and DTM Fan Area. Only at the Sachsenring is access to the DTM paddock limited, for reasons of capacity.

“We developed a totally new price structure for the 2023 season, which was very well received by the fans. The DTM has been particularly popular with families this year: a third of our visitors this season were children and youngsters. We are now continuing along this path. Ticket prices remain unchanged and fans can again enjoy the thrilling DTM action for as little as € 39. A fan-friendly paddock and autograph sessions offer ‘hands-on’ motorsport, while top international drivers ensure top-class racing on the track,” says ADAC Motorsport Director Thomas Voss.

The 2024 DTM season runs from April to October and comprises eight events. Motorsport Arena Oschersleben hosts the opening round from 26th to 28th April. In keeping with tradition, the popular racing series will travel to the Hockenheimring Baden-Württemberg for the season finale. The calendar also features two Formula 1 circuits outside of Germany, in the form of the Red Bull Ring in Styria, Austria, and Circuit Zandvoort on the Dutch North Sea coast. The DEKRA Lausitzring, Norisring, Nürburgring and Sachsenring are the venues for the remaining rounds.
