Munich. The second half of the 2024 DTM season gets underway. From 16th to 18th August, the DTM will be stopping off at the Nürburgring in the Eifel region. Ahead of the race weekend, a press conference in Cologne at 12:00 on Tuesday 13th August will give media representatives the opportunity to talk to Norising winner Nicki Thiim, Mercedes-AMG driver Arjun Maini, Porsche driver Ayhancan Güven, and David Schumacher, who will be contesting the Prototype Cup Germany alongside his father Ralf at the Nürburgring, as well as ADAC motorsport boss Thomas Voss and HRT team principal Ulrich Fritz. David Schumacher will be at the wheel of his LMP3 racing car from Prototype Cup Germany.

The ADAC Motorsport media portal provides journalists with various DTM resources, such as the DTM Media Guide 2024, the DTM Spotter's Guide, and high-resolution images for editorial purposes.

Pit tour and Manthey EMA roundtable

At Manthey EMA's home event, the reigning team champion invites interested media representatives to take part in a guided pit tour with Patrick Arkenau, Division Manager Racing, and a roundtable with Nicolas Raeder, Thomas Preining and Ayhancan Güven. The pit tour will last approximately 20 minutes and start at 13:10 on Friday. The roundtable will follow directly at 13:30. Please register (stating your name and medium) by 13:00 on 15th August by sending an e-mail to e.schaefer@manthey-racing.de or a.wortmann@manthey-racing.de. Places are limited. Detailed information will be sent to registered media representatives on the Thursday.

DTM Truck Go & Stop competition

A DTM Truck Go & Stop competition will be held at the Nürburgring for the first time. The competition will take place on the start-finish straight in front of stand 3 at 18:30 on Saturday 17th August. The DTM Truck Go & Stop competition will see towing machines of teams from the DTM and DTM supporting series go head-to-head in a knock-out competition, having to brake with pinpoint accuracy at the end of a 400-metre distance on the start-finish straight.

Media Guide

The current DTM Media Guide is available for download in printed form in the Media Centre at the Nürburgring or online as a digital version at media.adac-motorsport.de.
