Start of accreditation for the 2025 DTM

- Individual and permanent accreditation for the 2025 season possible now
- Official DTM Media Day on 2nd April at Motorsport Arena Oschersleben

Munich. The 2025 DTM season kicks off at Motorsport Arena Oschersleben from 25th to 27th April with eight manufacturers, defending champion Mirko Bortolotti (I), and some impressive newcomers. The first chance for the competitors to flex their muscles is the official pre-season test, which takes place on 2nd April, roughly three weeks ahead of the season-opener in Oschersleben. The DTM Media Day on 2nd April offers journalists the opportunity to find out all they need to know about the coming season. Accreditations for the 2025 DTM are now possible.

Accreditation for the 2025 DTM season or individual DTM events is possible exclusively online at akkreditierung.adac-motorsport.de. The accreditation portal is available in German and English, and provides information on detailed guidelines. All necessary documents for a season accreditation must be submitted by no later than 1st April 2025. The deadlines for individual accreditations are listed in the overview below. The DTM season accreditation also includes accreditation for the two ADAC GT Masters events, which take place outside the DTM at the ADAC Truck Grand Prix (11th to 13th July) and the ADAC Racing Weekend (5th to 7th September).

A separate accreditation is required for those wishing to attend the pre-season test and Media Day in Oschersleben. This must be submitted by 27th March 2025.

Media accreditations for the DTM do not entitle holders to record moving images. TV and film teams require a filming permit for this purpose. Please direct any queries regarding national and international TV filming permits, and planned broadcasts on online portals, to:
