Munich. The 2025 DTM season will get up and running with the official pre-season test at Motorsport Arena Oschersleben on 2nd April. Roughly three weeks ahead of the opening race, the teams and drivers will go head to head for the first time at the dress rehearsal for the 2025 season. The Test and Media Day in Oschersleben also gives media representatives the perfect opportunity to meet drivers, teams and officials in the paddock and chat to them directly about the coming season.

As part of the official Test and Media Day, the DTM will provide information on the 2025 season at a press conference in Lounge 27/28 at 13:15 on Wednesday 2nd April. ADAC Motorsport Director Thomas Voss will speak at the press conference, along with reigning DTM champion Mirko Bortolotti, former Formula 1 driver Timo Glock, and managing director of Motorsport Arena Oschersleben Ralph Bohnhorst.

On 2nd April, the DTM drivers will be available for interviews and to chat to in the paddock and a mixed zone. The Media Center at Motorsport Arena Oschersleben can be used as a workplace by media representatives during the Test and Media Day.
