Munich. The grand finale of the 2025 DTM season at the Hockenheimring Baden-Württemberg (3rd to 5th October) not only promises to deliver thrilling motorsport, but also guarantees a rousing musical spectacle. From 19:00 on the Saturday evening (4th October), rising star Kamrad and the legendary H-Blockx will appear on the "DTM Powerstage presented by Pirelli" behind the South Stand (Block A). Admission to the "DTM Powerstage presented by Pirelli" is free for all DTM ticket holders. Tickets for the DTM finale start at € 49 and are available at dtm.com. Admission is free for under 16s when accompanied by an adult.

With hits like "I Believe", "Feel Alive" and "Be Mine", Kamrad has enjoyed a rapid rise in the international charts and is now an established name on radio and streaming platforms. The 28-year-old received gold and platinum discs on the international scene for "I Believe". Last year, Kamrad was also a member of the jury on the successful show "The Voice of Germany" on DTM TV partner ProSieben. At the Hockenheimring, fans will be able to enjoy Kamrad's biggest hits live on stage.

Rock festival vibes will come courtesy of H-Blockx. The cult band from Münster has been renowned for its high-octane crossover sound since the 1990s, and in August released its new single "Straight Outta Nowhere". H-Blockx will give an exclusive taste of August's "FILLIN_THE_BLANK – TOUR" live in Hockenheim - together with Kamrad, the perfect soundtrack to an exciting DTM weekend.
