- Free admission for under 16s

Munich. The finale is only the beginning: When the chequered flag falls to signal the end of the 2026 DTM this Sunday, attention will switch to the 2027 season. Tickets go on sale immediately after the final race, and with that begins the anticipation of all eight of next year's events. From 18:00, fans can go to dtm.com to secure the best seats for 2027. Tickets are still available for as little as € 49, while under 16s can experience the DTM free of charge when accompanied by an adult.

And there is a second good reason to act quickly: the first 15,000 people to purchase tickets will receive a free BWT pro-climate bottle. The exclusive extra will be handed out on site at the respective DTM event that was booked. ADAC members will also continue to benefit in 2027: they save ten percent on DTM tickets purchased in advance.

The DTM has something for the whole family - with spectacular battles on the track and unforgettable experiences away from the asphalt. Visitors are immersed in the fascinating world of the DTM on the Pitwalk, while "Meet the Drivers" autograph sessions are the perfect opportunity to meet their favourite stars in person. Awaiting visitors in the DTM Fan Zone are Europe's biggest mobile ball pool, a reaction wall, selfie spots, a 360-degree camera, and a big screen. Free concerts at selected events make the race weekend an experience for young and old alike. The Track Safari is unique to the DTM and sees visitors taken out onto the racetrack in buses during a practice session - it doesn't get any closer to the action than this.

The season kicks off from 23rd to 25th April 2027 at the Red Bull Ring presented by VKB-Bank in Austria. The DTM calendar then takes fans to Germany, Austria and the Netherlands: eight race weekends, 16 races, and motorsport packed with drama. The grand showdown takes place from 8th to 10th October at the traditional season finale at the Hockenheimring Baden-Württemberg.

So, act quickly, secure your dream seats, and enjoy the anticipation of thrilling racing and that unique DTM atmosphere. There is an exclusive BWT bottle for the first 15,000 people to purchase tickets. And if you're already thinking about Christmas: when you give the gift of DTM tickets, you are not simply giving admission tickets, but a high-speed and emotionally-charged experience.
