Indy Dontje (Netherlands, Formel ADAC, Lotus):

“Because of the strong winds and the proximity to the sand dunes, the track is somewhat lacking in grip, which makes driving here quite tricky. But that’s one of the features that make Zandvoort so special. You have to adapt your driving style accordingly – then we find out who really has their car under control. One of my favourite sections of the circuit is Turn 6 which goes by the name of ‘Scheivlak’. You take this corner almost at full throttle, and you certainly feel the G-force on your whole body. It’s an amazing sensation!”
