Munich: Media representatives can now apply for full season and race-by-race accreditation for the 2017 ADAC Formula 4 season as well as for the ADAC GT Masters and ADAC TCR Germany. Applications can only be made online at www.adac-motorsport.de/akkreditierung. Media representatives from the areas of print, online and radio, as well as photographers, can apply online for accreditation where detailed guidelines regarding accreditation are also set out. The documents required for accreditation this season must be submitted by 31st March at the latest. A separate request for accreditation must be made for the joint ADAC GT Masters, ADAC Formula 4 and ADAC TCR Germany Media Day. The Media Day, including press conference, for the 2017 season will take place on April 11th during official ADAC Formula 4 pre-season testing at the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben. Further information about the Media Day will follow shortly. Media representatives who have already submitted an application for accreditation to the ADAC GT Masters or the ADAC TCR Germany do not need any additional accreditation for the ADAC Formula 4.

You can also now apply for one-off accreditation for the Media Day (11th April), the season opener at Oschersleben (28th - 30th April), the meetings at the Red Bull Ring (9th - 11th June), the Nürburgring (4th - 6th August) and Sachsenring (15th - 17th September). The deadlines for one-off accreditation to all events/meetings are listed in the summary below. Application for one-off accreditation to the Motorsport Festival Lausitzring (19th - 21st May) and to the season finale in Hockenheim (22th - 24th September) will be possible at a later date. Please contact Marcel Orban (presse@motorsportarena.com) at the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben to apply for one-off accreditation for the race weekend to be staged in the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben under the banner of the TCR International Series (7th - 9th July).

Press accreditation does not authorise the holder to record moving images. TV and film teams need a special TV permit. Please direct all enquiries regarding national/international TV licences and broadcasts planned for online portals to:
