Accreditation for 2020 ADAC Formula 4 gets under way

- Start of accreditation process for ADAC GT Masters, ADAC GT4 Germany, ADAC TCR Germany and ADAC Formula 4

Media representatives can now apply for permanent accreditation and for accreditation on an individual, event-by-event basis for the ADAC Formula 4 season that starts in April and for the ADAC GT Masters, the ADAC GT4 Germany and ADAC TCR Germany. This is only possible online at adac-motorsport.de/akkreditierung. By accessing the online accreditation portal, representatives from print, digital and radio media as well as photographers can request accreditation for the upcoming season. Further details about accreditation are also available on the ADAC Motorsport accreditation portal. April 1st 2020 is the deadline for submission of documents to support your request for permanent accreditation this season.

Please note that separate, additional accreditation is required for the Media Day that marks the start of the season for the ADAC GT Masters, the ADAC GT4 Germany, the ADAC TCR Germany and ADAC Formula 4. The Media Day, including press conference, for the 2020 season will take place in the Motorsport Arena Oschersleben on Monday, 6th April during official ADAC GT Masters pre-season testing. Further information about the Media Day will be made available shortly.

You can also now apply for accreditation for the six ADAC Formula 4 races to be staged during ADAC GT Masters weekends on an individual, event-by-event basis. Deadlines for individual accreditation are set out in the box below.

Please note that separate, additional accreditation will also be required for the two races taking place under the banner of the ADAC Total 24-hour race at the Nürburgring, as the permanent media tickets for the ADAC Formula 4 and ADAC GT Masters will not be valid for the Nordschleife classic. Should you wish to report on the ADAC Formula 4 to be staged within the context of the 24-hour race at the Nürburgring, please submit a separate, additional request for accreditation at 24h-media.de before the deadline. The Press Office for the Nürburgring 24-hour race is your contact in case of any queries at akkreditierung@24h-rennen.de.

ADAC Formula 4 press accreditation does not entitle the holder to record moving images. TV and film crews require a special TV permit. Please direct all enquiries regarding national/international TV film permits and broadcasting on digital platforms to:
